Navy Pier welcomes frozen treat purveyor Snow Dragon Shavery

CHICAGO -- Navy Pier, Inc., announced today that Chicago favorite Snow Dragon Shavery will open on Navy Pier. The popular server of Taiwanese-style frozen treats is the newest member of Navy Pier's revamped food lineup – a key element of the Pier's ongoing and complete reimagination in honor of its Centennial Celebration marking its 100th year in Chicago.

Navy Pier will be home to Snow Dragon Shavery's third location, expanding a portfolio that includes Lincoln Park and Evanston. Their refreshing and unique Taiwanese-style frozen treat combinations are made of flavored shaved snow topped with fruit, jellies, candy, and other toppings. Shaved snow flavors include green tea, mango, pina colada and more. Snow Dragon Shavery will also serve its popular macaron sandwiches and Bubble Tea. Snow Dragon Shavery will open on the Pier's Food Court Sunday, May 1.

"A key element of our Centennial Vision is partnering with local favorites to provide Navy Pier guests with a true taste of Chicago," said Marilyn Gardner, CEO of Navy Pier. "By continuing to expand our portfolio of restaurants and specialty offerings such as Snow Dragon Shavery, Navy Pier is fast becoming one of the City's dining hot spots."

To become one of Chicago's top dining experiences, Navy Pier has recruited some of the most popular local establishments that reflect authentic Chicago cuisine including Porkchop, DMK Burger and Fish Bar, Goddess and the Baker, Big City Chicken, Big Bowl Chinese Express, Frankie's Pizza by the Slice, and the recently-announced Tiny Tavern.

The owners of Show Dragon Shavery -- Gulzar Huda, Roshan Meghani and Rozina Sabzali -- are thrilled to be a part the Pier's rapidly growing food experience and for the opportunity to reach new customers from around Chicago and all across the globe.

Gardner promises even more new restaurants and exceptional food offerings will be announced throughout the Pier's Centennial Celebration.
