Fun, Festivities and ... Fishing at Navy Pier!

CHICAGO – Come to Navy Pier for lots of fun, plenty of festivities and let's not forget ... fishing!

With so much to do at Navy Pier it's easy to forget fishing is just one of the countless activities available at the People's Pier!

Come to Navy Pier early, watch the sun rise and, while there, you might just find Eric Suda, 10, and his father, Jim. The two visit the Pier at least once or twice a week in search of Chicago's best perch, salmon, bass, or trout - depending on the season and temperature of the weather. In fact, not long ago the father and son duo, and Navy Pier regulars, were featured in the Chicago Sun-Times.

Those looking to fish may do so along Navy Pier's Southwest wall and the always popular North Dock area. Also, between the hours of 5 a.m. and 10 a.m., anyone with a valid fishing license who shows it at our Navy Pier's Standard Parking garage office may receive their parking validated for $5. *Cars must be out of the garage by 10 a.m. in order to receive the discount.

For information regarding all Navy Pier activities and events please visit www.navypier.com.
