RULES AND REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO PERMITS FOR PUBLIC EXPRESSION AT NAVY PIER AND POLK BROS PARK

Persons granted a permit to engage in non-commercial expressive activity shall not:

- Violate any laws, City ordinances or zoning requirements or prohibitions;
- Cause injury or damage to Navy Pier resources or facilities;
- Interfere with ingress or egress of Navy Pier patrons;
- Impair the operation of Navy Pier facilities;
- Endanger the health or safety of the public or Navy Pier patrons;
- Carry or distribute balloons;
- Litter;
- Generate noise through the use of amplified sound devices, such as bullhorns, public address systems, in violation of levels permitted in the City of Chicago Ordinances.
- Affix signs, literature or other materials to any object, structure, sculpture or tree on Navy Pier or in Polk Bros Park;
- Use vehicles or any other wheeled device as part of an expressive activity, with the exception of wheelchairs and other similar motorized devices for those individuals physically requiring such devices;
- Store or leave unattended any boxes or bags of literature or any other materials;
- Erect any table, chair, booth or structure of physical prop;
- Disseminate obscene materials; nor
- Request more than five days per month for any organization, individual or group of individuals to engage in any such activity.

In addition, persons granted a permit to leaflet on Navy Pier proper shall not:

- Use voice amplification devices (e.g., bullhorns);
- Leaflet outside the designated Leafleting Area;
- Solicit passers-by for contributions or signatures (except that this does not prevent a Leafleter from handing out material that seeks donations); nor
- Carry, post or affix signs or placards to any portion of the Pier.

Note: If a Leafleter makes the requests, Navy Pier will provide a table and chair to sit at within the leafleting area.

Permits apply only to non-commercial expressive activity. The distribution of commercial leaflets or other forms of advertising at Navy Pier and Polk Bros Park is strictly prohibited except as allowed pursuant to a lease or a short-term license obtained from the Authority. NPI reserves the right to immediately cancel a permit if the applicant materially violates any of the forgoing rules. Questions concerning whether conduct would comply with these rules may be
